account of 1910 and been a hitch in the big shoot to have been pulled off here during the past three days. Although some of the crack shots of the country were here, but little shooting was done. It was a great disappointment to our local shooters who were anxious to see the work of the best shots to be seen in the country.

Mr. Hubby District Manager for U.
M. C. Co. made the following statement today in regard to an article in yesterday's paper that the absence of Mr. Herr was the cause of a non-compliance with the published program of the shoot to be held here beginning Wednesday morning.

Mr. Hubby states "that this was an advertised shoot, registered with the Inter-State Association which has certain rules for conducting tournaments, the object of such tournaments is to encourage the interest in trap shooting among the amateurs.

Mr. Jackson, the regular U. M. C. representative, who makes the Tournaments in Texas is in attendance here and has shot the program as far as allowed to do so. Just why the other representatives are not shooting we have no right to say, though we do say they had no right to assume that Mr. Herr was coming here, and surely had no authority for the statement that he was coming. On the other hand, they had been told several days prior to the shoot that he was not assigned to shoot here.

We are aware that the local sportsmen are disgusted with the proceedings, after being led to believe there would be a regular shooting Tournament, though we deny most emphatically that we have any connection whatever with the matter, or that we were ever consulted in any way in regard to the shoot.

As to just why Mr. Gardner has refused to allow the other representatives and amateurs who made the request to shoot the program he alone will have to answer."

BEARD-STEVENER.

Popular Young Brazos County Couple Married Last Night.

A wedding occurred in the Kurten community last night in which two of Brazos county's popular young people were the contracting parties. Mr. John W. Beard of Edge and Miss Emily Stevener were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Stevener, Rev. D. J. McDonald of Wheelock officiating. The ceremony was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of relatives and friends.
When the ceremony was over the bride and groom received congratulations and best wishes of all present, after which an elegant wedding supper was served. They were entertained at a splendid dinner today at the home of the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beard.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Stevener, was reared in the Kurten community, and is a young lady of charming personality, refined, and gracious in manner and disposition. Mr. Beard is indeed to be congratulated in winning her to be his life companion.

The groom was also reared in this county, and is one of our very best young men. He is industrious, of high moral character, and is held in high esteem by all. He is connected with the mercantile firm of Beard & Crenshaw of Edge.

Mr. and Mrs. Beard will reside in the little city of Edge.

MASONS MOVED TODAY.

The Masonic bodies represented in Bryan, including the Blue Lodge, Chapter Royal Arch Masons and Knights Templar, moved their lodge furniture and fixtures today upstairs over the store of Mr. W. E. Saunders.
The old Masonic temple has been sold to Mr. B. Shisan of the A. and M. College and possession has to be given tomorrow, January first. The Masonic bodies have purchased a lot from the city in the city hall park adjoining the new opera house, and will build an elegant temple in the near future, just as soon as they can get the title to the lot straightened out and the other necessary details arranged. Until it is built they have leased temporary quarters over Mr. Saunders' store.

THE MIDNIGHT TRAIN.

The midnight train will soon be due;
Its schedule is arranged by fate;
Therefore no storm will stop its race.
It will not be a moment late.

And if our work be done or not,
No time is there to shed a tear;
The record of our deeds will stand Emblazoned on the passing year.

Some leave behind them shattered hopes,
Like some mirage that lured them on;
And some, alas! leave graves of friends,
Who left at morning or at dawn.

And some have spoken cruel words, That lightened not the pilgrim's load;
And some have offered words of hope, That cheered the traveler on his road.

While there is yet a little space, Let not our hearts and lips be dumb;
O Lord, we pray Thee Thou wilt make

Us kindlier in the days to come, Blot anger from our hearts, O Lord;
From its dread sin give us surcease,
And charity place in its stead;
So may our paths be paths of peace.

The midnight train will soon be due,
Its coming we will shortly see;
For good or ill shall we depart To regions unexplored by man.
